The Senior Class Would Like To Dedicate This Years

Tattle Tale

To: Mrs. Patricia Izzi & Ms. Elaine Paiva.

We, the class of 1996, would like to express our deepest thanks to Mrs. Patricia Izzi and Ms. Elaine Paiva. Together these two wonderful people made our four years at Attleboro High School special and unforgettable. The success of all our dances, proms and fundraisers has a great deal to do with the enthusiasm and dedication of these two individuals. With the advisory stuff aside, Mrs. Izzi and Ms. Paiva were also great friends - people we could go to if we needed any help or just friendly advice. When the Class of 1996 looks back on our high school years, these two people will surely be remembered. So, once again THANK YOU very much, and we hope these four years were as much fun for you as they were for us.

Thank You . . .

From The Class Of 1996

Senior History

Looking back on the first day of freshman year, who would've thought we would be here today. We were confused and lost. On the second day, not only were we confused and lost, but we were also trying to avoid the upperclassmen in fear of getting beat up. For some reason, those seniors, juniors, and even some sophomores looked so big and sure of what they were doing and where they were going. They all said the same thing: "Your freshman year will go by so fast!" Before we knew it, the Friday night football games were over. The spirit rallies, which we always came in last no matter how hard we tried, were over. The end result was new relationships forged which would last for the next three years.

As sophomores, we were at a total loss of identity. We weren't the babies (freshman) anymore, we had no authority as did the almost-seniors (juniors), and we definitely did not have the power of the almighty seniors. The Friday night football games were still popular, but, as sophomores, many of us were exposed to other weekend social activities. Also we won our first big rally event: The Penny Wars. That was when our true class spirit began to show (even though we had to be a little creative to win, we did it as a class.) Sophomore year was also our first year our class dance was not being held at the school. It was at the illustrious Elks Club where everyone danced and had a great time. By the end of sophomore year, we were more then ready to become juniors.

Junior year started off great; We were the ones who looked "big and sure of what we were doing and where we were going." Unlike freshman year when we had to know everyone else's name just to fit in, junior year was different. We were the ones underclassmen had to know.

We made our first mark as the junior class of 1996 at the first spirit rally: We came in first place. After two years of continually coming in last, we beat the freshman, sophomores, and the over-confident seniors. Powderpuff was the next time we made our presence known. We thought we had a 1% chance of winning, but we still worked hard at our practices. The hard work paid off. On game day, we were all "psyched" and ready to play against the senior girls. Apparently, the senior girls were not ready for us. They thought they could defeat us with ease. They couldn't have been more wrong. With a touchdown and a two-point conversion in the second half, we defeated the seniors 8-0. The junior prom was a great way to bring junior year to a close. The theme was "Faithfully" and even though the D.J. was a little odd (singing by himself and teaching us wierd dances) we all had fun.

Now, here we are as seniors. We are anticipating everything this year will bring: Spirit rallies, Powderpuff, the Christmas Semi-Formal, the Senior Semi-Formal, the Senior Reception, the Senior Breakfast, the Senior Prom, and, of course, Graduation. We are looking forward to the future yet we are also sad to leave. We will miss the familiar sights of AHS and the times we shared here as the class of 1996. We wish everyone the best of luck for the future and we are confident everyone will find success in their own individual way.

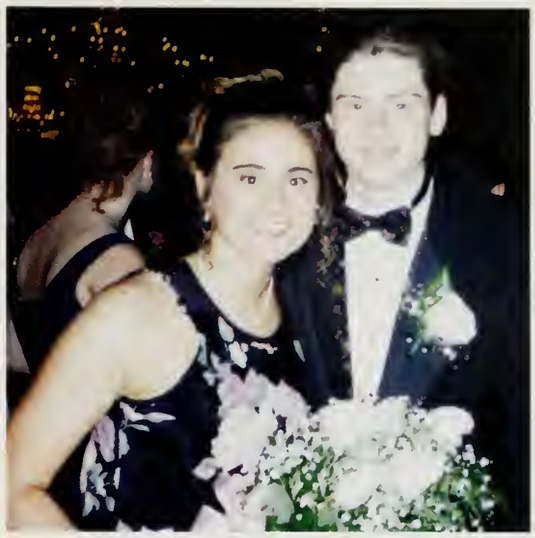
Now don't we look sexy!

Hey guys why are you hiding?

I brought my party hat.

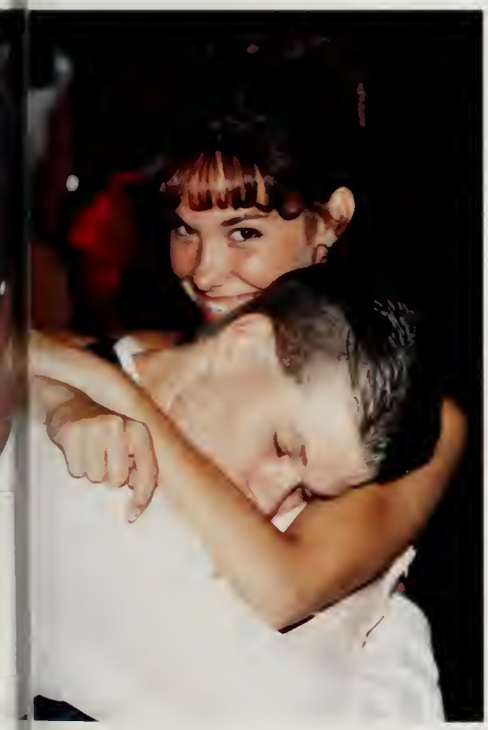
Do I have to?



At least they didn't forget the flowers.

Wow, I wish I was over there.

Yeah, I'm a stud.



Gee I'm tired.

Hey, I brought my hat too.

Dear Graduates of the Class of 1996:

It is an honor and privilege for me to extend to each of you the collective well-wishes and salutations of the School Committee, Central Administration, and the over 700 faculty and staff of the Attleboro Public School System. To each of you, our hearty best wishes and congratulations on the successful completion of your studies in Attleboro's Public Schools. We sincerely hope that the experiences, skills, and preparations you have received here will give you special insights on the wonderful future you will have as citizens of the twenty-first century.

The 1996 edition of The Tattletale contains many snapshots of this past year and the friends and events that have made it important. Treasure it and the memories it represents. Whatever you will become will be an extension of what you are here and now. Your life and future will be accompanied by the hope and optimism that we, as a community, hold for you.

As alumnae and alumni, I hope you will uphold and sustain the traditions that have made Attleboro High School one of the finest! I also hope that you will come back often and share your reflections on life-long learning and your experiences with the faculty, staff and future generations of students. You carry a little of each of us into an unseen future. For each of you, we wish the best in life, health, friendships, and success.

Sincerely,

Joseph B. Rappa, Ed. D.

Dear Seniors:

Congratulations on the completion of your high school education. As individuals and as a class you have brought credit to yourselves and our school. I would like to thank and congratulate you for the manner in which you have conducted yourselves in our school.

It is my sincere hope that this school experience has provided an environment and atmosphere which enabled you to acquire new skills, make long lasting friendships, and given you fond memories that will stay with you for the remainder of your life.

The faculty and staff join with me in wishing you the very best in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

World Champions wear Balfour rings. So should you.

Your class ring is made with the very same craftsmanship and care that go into the making of the sports world's most sought after symbols of accomplishment: the championship rings. Like yours, made by Balfour, of course.

Editor's Note

It's finally over. It seemed like this book would never get done. It wasn't easy considering only four people worked on it. We would like to thank everyone who helped us out by naming people or doing other jobs. We would also like to thank Kristen Lindberg, our only staff member. A great thanks to Mr. Burbank, our advisor. He dedicated long hours of his time to make this book. Even with his busy schedule, he always found a way to stay late and get things done. Lastly we would like to extend our congradulations to the graduating class of 1996. Good luck!
